 Classification. - Classification of pupils is made at the end of each twelve weeks. This grading is just to pupils since they have opportunity to be grouped in C, B, or A divisions of a grade.
 Method of Grading. - The method of grading combines daily efficiency with efficiency in examinations. The teachers estimate is valued two-thirds and results of examinations one-third. This method is rendered still more equitable to the pupil, through making each subject share the same responsibility in determining promotion as it shares in the daily time schedule.
 Size of Divisions. - Principals are directed not to create divisions C, B, or A with a less number than fifteen pupils. No more than two divisions are to be assigned to a room. When two divisions are assigned, these should be consecutive, to wit, C and B, B and A, or A and C.
 Adaptation of Instruction. - When two divisions are assigned to a room, there are separate classes in arithmetic and reading...
