In such cases, however, the Deputy Collector, in preference to settling rents at lower rates, changed the classification of the soil in such a way as to bring the village total rent within the prescribed limits. 73. The Deputy Collector took kabulyats from all the tenants of the estate and the rents settled are said to have been of wSf. settlement and greed 2Qg bighag rf recorded as held with rights of occupancy, and 4, 654 without such rights, and a further area of 437 bighas was let by contract for grazing purposes. These figures will be compared in a subsequent paragraph with those of the present settlement. 74. The total rent-roll of the area assessed by Babu Chandi Charan x, Bose was Rs. 11, 919, and the revenue proposed as tSTZStSST P1 by the farmers Rs. 9, 674. The latter amount underwent considerable change during the ensuing 20 years, owing to two causes, namely, the lapse in 1896 of, the maintenance grant of five villages already referred to, and to the policy adopted from the same year of taking estates under direct management, . whenever occasion offered. In his letter No. 2330R. , dated 19th February 1900, in which he submitted proposals for survey and settlement, the Deputy Commissioner stated that 36 villages had by that time been brought under direct management, and that the revenue demand was Rs. 10, 996. To this he anticipated an increase of Rs. 4, 500 due partly to the...
